Prayer Space

Suggestions: Set up a space that is visible for all students. Drape the space with prayer cloths. Place a candle (real or battery operated), a cross, a bible or lectionary with the place marked with today's reading and an image of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop in the prayer space. Alternatively, these items could be processed in and placed into the sacred space one by one, whilst the opening song plays.

Introduction

(Begin with the following introduction if you are not sharing Mary's story in the reflection of today's liturgy. If you are, begin with the paragraph Mary MacKillop Today is continuing...)

Mary Helen MacKillop was born in 1842 in Victoria to Scottish immigrant parents and grew up with seven brothers and sisters. At the age of twenty-four, she dedicated her life to God and took on the name "Mary of the Cross."

Mary was an ordinary woman with an extraordinary dream and a big heart. Her dream was to give the poorest families and most neglected children access to education and safe shelter by opening schools. With what little resources they had, Mary and Father Tenison Woods turned an old stable into a school in Penola, South Australia.

In 1866 Mary and Father Tenison worked together to set up the Sisters of St Joseph of the Sacred Heart (the Josephites). This was the first religious order to be founded by an Australian.

Mary taught everyone—regardless of gender, race, faith, or wealth— while serving with love and compassion. She and the Sisters of St Joseph went wherever the need was greatest. They gave up everything to live and teach amongst the people they served.

Mary MacKillop Today is continuing the vision of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop and the Sisters of St Joseph. They work with communities to create change by teaching practical skills to women, men and children in Australia and overseas. If Mary of the Cross MacKillop were living in our world today we could not only imagine her doing this work but speaking out about it courageously.

Let's walk in the footsteps of Australia's most loved Saint.
Just like Mary MacKillop...
Let's be fierce in the face of adversity.
Let's be fair and act when we see injustice.
Let's give love to those we encounter each day.
Together, let's be Fierce for Fair.

Opening Prayer

Leader: In the name of the Father...

Loving God,
St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, a woman of fierce courage for injustice and fairness in her treatment for all turned to you for strength and guidance as she helped all in need. May this celebration give us courage and strength to do the same, to be Fierce For Fair in a world of need. We ask this in your name.

All: Amen

Gospel

Gospel: Matthew 6:25-34

Reader:

A reading from the Gospel of Matthew:

Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection Ideas

Reflect on the life of Mary MacKillop in light of Matthew's scripture passage. Below are a list of ways this could be done:

- Reflect using a series of questions
- Students lead a reflection they created using Be Fierce for Fair Statements – eg
 - Be Fierce for homelessness
 - Be Fierce for refugees
 - Be fierce for the lonely, etc,
- As Mary MacKillop was a great letter writer, engage a class of students prior to the liturgy to write a series of text messages or Instagram chats retelling her story in today's context and challenging their peers to Be Fierce For Fair. These could be presented as an audiovisual presentation for those gathered to see.
- If you are a Josephite school, share some of the school's history and how the Mary MacKillop's legacy continues to live on in the life of the school today.

Some reflections could have quiet music playing in the background. When the music concludes, it will indicate the time of reflection has concluded.
